

Your Ceremony in Copenhagen

Huge Congratulations to you both, your application for marriage has been approved by the Family Law Office and your electronic file is with Copenhagen marriage office. Your ceremony is all booked and confirmed, and all the details are in your confirmation email.

Your ceremony will be held in the ceremony room at the Copenhagen City Hall, and the address is Radhuspladsen 1, 1550, Copenhagen.

When you go into the main doors there is a room immediately to the left where you will do your document presentation. And then when you walk in the main door straight ahead you will see hearts on the floor and signs, you follow these, around to the right, up the stairs and to the magnificent waiting area. Please be there 10minutes before your ceremony and the registrar will call you in.

USEFUL INFORMATION ABOUT COPENHAGEN

Here is some information for you to help with your ceremony in the beautiful Copenhagen. Please ensure you do not book anything until you have confirmed your wedding appointment at the town hall.

Please see our blog 'Our Guide to Copenhagen', that offers lots of information on getting around and the various areas.

Getting to Copenhagen

Most airports/airlines will be able to get you to Copenhagen as it is one of Europe's largest hub airports. If you fly to Copenhagen airport, just outside the arrivals area there is a station for the 'metro' system that will take you directly into the City Centre.

Your Wedding Certificates

You will receive 2 wedding certificates directly after your wedding ceremony. These will be in Danish, German, English, French and Spanish.

Accommodation

Copenhagen is Denmark's capital city, so there is a lot of accommodation to choose from, catering to all tastes, needs and budgets. We recommend that you try the larger websites to find something suitable such as www.booking.com, or www.trivago.com, and there are lots of beautiful www.airbnb.com. To find something close to City Hall please see this map, you can edit the dates and see instant prices and availability.

Trips

It is possible for you to have a day trip whilst you are in Copenhagen, they are run by Sergiu who is amazing, please let him know that you are one of our couples.
